Thank you Jessica! Lots of talk of nutrition for the poor and marginalized. But the framework of a "nutritious diet" is defined by white westerners. What about culture and DE&I in nutrition education?	Krista Maruca	0
Hi! I am a student delegate and my thesis focuses on possible factors that may affect the nutritional value of nuts. I wonder if considering nuts' nutritional values would be critical among food and how to make nuts accessible as well as affordable for some poor areas.	Zhaotianyi Ma	0
